

Orientation Q&A

Where will orientation be held?	Orientations are held in the Sally Port at Longmont Humane Society. This room is on the north end of the building, next to the two garage doors.
Do I need to RSVP?	Yes! RSVP is needed to attend orientation. This ensures that the orientation & training dates work for your schedule. Once the dates have been set you are welcome to RSVP.
Who needs to attend orientation?	The teen and their parent or legal guardian needs to attend orientation. Trainings are attended by the teen only.
What should I bring?	We kindly ask for a donation fee of $25. We can accept cash or check. An application, waiver, and shift request will be provided, though you are welcome to print off the paperwork from the website and bring it with you to orientation.
Still have questions?	Any further questions please email brooke@longmonthumane.org Or call 303-772-1232 x278
